

Images subject to change.

- | | | | |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1 A Salt & Battery
112 Greenwich Avenue
Man Protesting Against Saloons,
circa 1950. | 4 Garber Hardware
710 Greenwich Street
Elevated Railway on Greenwich
Street, circa late 1880s. | 7 Porto Rico Importing Co.
201 Bleeker Street
Men Playing Bocce, circa 1950. | 10 St. Mark's Bookshop
31 Third Avenue
Former Astor Library (now the Public
Theater), undated. |
| 2 Carry On Tea & Sympathy
110 Greenwich Avenue
Last Car through Washington Square
Park, 1958. | 5 glassybaby
555 Hudson Street
Girl with Rollerskates at the Washington
Square Art Show, circa 1950. | 8 Raffetto's
144 West Houston Street
West 10th Street after Blizzard, 1888. | 11 Tea & Sympathy
108 Greenwich Avenue
Lobby of the former Brevoort Hotel,
1948. |
| 3 C.O. Bigelow Apothecaries
414 Sixth Avenue
Site of Women's House of Detention
Before Construction Reveals Minetta
Creek, 1920. | 6 Murray's Cheese
254 Bleeker Street
View of Carmine Street from Sixth
Avenue, Houses Slated for Demolition,
1926. | 9 SoHo Wines and Spirits
461 West Broadway
Washington Square Village under Construction, 1958. | 12 Your Neighborhood Office
332 Bleeker Street
The Old Curiosity Shop on Sheridan
Square in the very heart of the Village, undated. |