

Remember the Triangle Fire Coalition

1911
ONE HUNDRED YEARS
2011

Join us!

Date: Tuesday, March 24

Place: Judson Memorial Church
55 Washington Sq. South

Time: 6:00 - 8:00 P.M.

Enjoy refreshments and entertainment while learning about the history of the fire and how you can help create a city-wide centennial to remember.

The Triangle Fire Remembrance Coalition is a diverse group from all walks of life, sharing a common goal. We have joined together to honor the memory of the victims of the Triangle Shirtwaist Factory Fire of 1911 and to heighten awareness of the struggle for social justice that continues today.

RSVP to info@rememberthetrianglefire.org

www.rememberthetrianglefire.org

Remember the Triangle Fire Coalition is grateful for the generous support of the Schwarz Family Foundation. CityLore is the fiscal sponsor for Remember the Triangle Fire Coalition.

This project is endorsed by the following organizations: American Social History, Archives and Public History Program at New York University, Bowery Poetry Club, Calandra Institute for Italian American Studies (CUNY), Campo Films, Casa Italiana Zerilli-Marimò, City Reliquary Museum and Civic Organization, Concentration in Fashion Studies, the Graduate Center (CUNY), Department of Romance Languages at Hunter College (CUNY), East Village History Project, Education & Labor Collaborative (Adelphi), Feminist Press at CUNY, Franklin Furnace, Gotham Center for New York City (CUNY), Greenwich Village Society for Historic Preservation, I-Italy, Labor Studies (Hofstra), Lower East Side Tenement Museum, MALIA Collective of Italian American Women, Mud/Bone, Street Pictures, StreetCry Productions, UNITE HERE, Women and Gender Studies Program at Hunter College (CUNY), Women's Studies (Hofstra), and Workmen's Circle/Arbeter Ring.