

Transcript of edited excerpts.

McDARRAH, GLORIA

"I'm Gloria Schoffel McDarrah, and I'm a resident of 505 since 1967.

SoHo has certainly changed drastically. When Tim was little, the rag dealers would have these great big railroad cars filled with rags. And nobody lived in that neighborhood. And then gradually artists move in, and then gradually galleries moved in. And then it became a real art center. And then the galleries started to move out. Now Chelsea is really where the art galleries are. And SoHo is like a shopping mall."