The Sale of Air Rights from the Hudson River Park – What Does This Mean for Development Along Our Waterfront, and How Can We Protect Our Neighborhood?

The State Legislature recently passed a bill allowing the sale of air rights from Hudson River Park piers for development along the waterfront in our neighborhood. In the coming months decisions will be made about if, how, and where these air rights can be used. Find out more and join with your neighbors to ensure that our neighborhood is protected from overdevelopment!

Sponsored by the Greenwich Village Society for Historic Preservation, Save Chelsea, Council of Chelsea Block Associations, Tribeca Trust, Chelsea Reform Democratic Club, Village Independent Democrats, Village Reform Democratic Club, Greenwich Village Community Task Force, Lower Chelsea Alliance, Charles Street Association, West 13th Street 100 Block Association, Charlton Street Block Association, VanDam Street Block Association, Perry Street Block Association, Downtown Independent Democrats, the Perry Street Crusaders, Jim Owles Liberal Democratic Club, Morton Street Block Association, West 12th Street Block Association, and Greenwich Village Block Associations (list in formation)
